

Please continue to treat the internet as a utility and prevent allowing corporations to self-regulate. If you are a person who has not directly benefited financially from an internet provider you want internet to be treated as a utility.